

Contacts: Daniel Marks Cohen
Housing Partnership Development Corporation
(646) 217-3373

For Immediate Release

Idan Sims
Sims & Associates, Inc.
(917) 940-7876 or (212) 725-3838

NYS Commissioner of Homes and Community Renewal
James S. Rubin Keynote Speaker at Housing Partnership's October 26 'Wine and Jazz' Benefit

New York, October 9, 2015 – James S. Rubin, NYS Commissioner of Homes and Community Renewal is the keynote speaker at the NYC Housing Partnership's annual Wine and Jazz Benefit on Monday, October 26 at the Refinery Rooftop at the Refinery Hotel at 63 West 38th Street, 6-8pm.

The Housing Partnership, a not-for-profit organization, serves as New York City's primary intermediary for the development of new and rehabilitated affordable housing on both public and private sites, creating nearly 50,000 units its 33 year history.

“From its inception the Housing Partnership has collaborated with our public and private partners to create workforce housing in New York City. Our October 26th event featuring Mr. Rubin supports the Housing Partnership's efforts to expand affordable housing opportunities. This annual event is attended by developers, bankers, affordable housing advocates and public officials,” said Daniel Martin, Housing Partnership President and CEO.

NYS Homes and Community Renewal, headed by Mr. Rubin, is the agency responsible for the implementation of Governor Andrew M. Cuomo's $1 billion “House NY” program, and financing the development and preservation of affordable housing statewide.

For more information go to <http://housingpartnership.com/wine-and-jazz-benefit-2015/> or contact Heidy Trinidad at 646-217-3391 or htrinidad@housingpartnership.com.

###